Polish High Court Upholds Conviction of U.N. Official

Reuter

WARSAW, April 14—The supreme court today upheld a seven-year jail sentence imposed on a Polish United Nations employee for spying for an unidentified NATO member country, court sources said.

Alicja Wesolowska, 35, was sentenced by a secret military tribunal last month after she pleaded guilty to cooperation with a foreign intelligence service.

Wesolowska was arrested in Warsaw last August on her way from New York to a new U.N. post in Mongolia. Informed sources said she was accused of trying to recruit Poles to work for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.
